Welcome Tran Nguyen, our new IREX Fellow!

Tran is an IREX Fellow with the Siegel Institute through December. She spent five years working on community development projects to improve the living conditions of vulnerable and marginalized people in the Mekong Delta. Tran received her Master’s degree in Politics with an emphasis in International Relations in 2008 from Jawaharlal Nehru University in New Delhi, India. She works for the Norwegian Mission Alliance as a Program Officer currently but previously worked at Ho Chi Minh City Open University as a Lecturer and Assistant to the Dean of Foreign Affairs. During her time with Siegel Institute, Tran will gain experience with using sports, especially soccer, to promote gender equity in Vietnam.

Welcome Alicia Whittle, our new GRA!

Alicia has recently graduated from Kennesaw State University with a degree in Communication with a concentration in Organizational Communication. In addition, she has also received a Leadership Certificate to accompany her degree. Alicia is a former student athlete here at KSU and participated on the Women’s Track and Field team. She specialized in the sprints and currently holds twelve KSU track and field records. Academically, she has been a 3-Time NCAA Academic All-American, a Peach of an Athlete Role Model Nominee for 2015, and a recipient of the John McLendon Minority Postgraduate Scholarship. Alicia has been accepted into The graduate Integrated Global Communication program here at KSU.

The Siegel Institute would like to congratulate our Office Manager, Caitlan Shaw, on being named the Crisis Coordinator of the Quarter by the Office of Emergency Management. Since becoming a Crisis Coordinator in December, she has managed to complete both the Basic and Advanced Crisis Coordinator certifications before anyone else at KSU. Her next venture is to become a CERT Trainer.

Congrats Caitlan!

Crystal Money is now an Advisory Board member on the TEDx Advisory Board here at Kennesaw State University!

Congrats Crystal!
