PARTNER
Our special thanks to Northside Hospital who is the major contributor to our conference this year.

SPONSORS
The following companies have made financial contributions.
Genuine Auto Parts
Riverside Bank
Publix

EXHIBITORS
Please visit the following exhibitors
Chattahoochee Technical College
Northside Hospital
The Sharing Center for Women
Charles Cozier, Artist
KSU Bookstore
Healthy Partners
Valerie Jersey, Artist
A New You Skin and Body Clinic
Mary Kay Cosmetics
Georgia Cancer Coalition
CAREing Center
Center for Leadership, Ethics & Character

DONORS
We recognize the following who have donated items for our silent auction.
Continuing Education, KSU
Barbara Gulessian
Lillie Glassblowers
Katharine Hammond
Katie LaVallee
Kathleen McNulty
Northside Hospital
Donya Robinson
Judith Stillion

SPECIAL THANKS
To Judith Stillion who donated the butterfly pins.
To YMCA Kickers for their generous donation in memory of deceased Group members.

THE WOMEN'S PROGRAMMING STEERING COMMITTEE
Maggie & Stan Booze
Judith Bischof
Ruth Bettendorff
Julie Brennan
Debbie Butler
Linda Damico
Barbara Gulessian
Katharine Hammond
Deloris Hartley
Carol Holtz
Valerie Jersey
Katie LaVallee
Barbara Manous
Patsy Matthews

Presented by the Center for Leadership, Ethics & Character
Women's Programming

March 27, 2003

In Partnership with Northside Hospital
Keynote Speakers

Judith M. Stillion, PhD  Bethany D. Stillion, PhD

The Drs. Stillion have presented at numerous national conferences on generational membership and the way it affects family and communication. Dr. Judith Stillion, Director of the Center for Leadership, Ethics & Character has written four books and over 100 articles and chapters. Dr. Bethany Stillion is Associate Professor of Psychology at Clayton State College and University and received her PhD. from Emory University. The Mother/Daughter duo will bring a new understanding of the effect of generational membership in our daily lives.

Betty L. Siegel, PhD, Moderator

President of Kennesaw State University is moderator of the panel. Dr. Siegel was the first woman president to head an institution in the University System of Georgia and has been president of KSU for 21 years.

Patricia Richards and her Granddaughter, Carmen Merriwether. Ms. Richards, aged 68, experienced major social changes as an African American and her granddaughter is the beneficiary of those changes.

Nancy Ryle and her daughter, Rev. Patty Ryle Clay. Mrs. Ryle, an active community leader, raised three successful daughters. She and one of her daughters, who is pastor of Sharpe United Methodist Church, will share their special relationship.

Julie Ann Brennan and Sharon Statham From Northside Hospital, Cherokee, Ms. Brennan, and her colleague, Ms. Statham, show that intergenerational mentoring is not confined to families. This duo exemplifies the best of cross-generational learning.

Kathy L. Matthews is an Assistant Professor of English at Kennesaw State University. She is a professional storyteller and a charter member of Kuumba Storytellers of Georgia, an affiliate of the National Association of Black Storytellers. Audiences from coast to coast have lauded her performances in libraries, festivals, family reunions, and conferences.

---

2003 PHENOMENAL WOMAN AWARD

Dr. Eleanor Tobias Hopper

Our conference symbol is the butterfly. This beautiful and graceful creature represents the entry into a new stage of maturity that involves freedom, independence and exploration.